Join NAHC and be a part of advancing the housing cooperative movement – the best, most economical form of home ownership. NAHC supports, certifies and educates housing professionals to promote the interests of co-op housing communities. Gain access to advocacy in Washington, DC, national thought leaders and industry best practices so you can make a difference.

All direct members are eligible to vote at the Annual Meeting to elect the board of directors and to address other matters of concern to the association. Housing cooperatives have one vote per household. NAHC individual and professional members have one vote.
